Hafa Adai and Tirow Candidates:

We'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your decision to seek public office. Your willingness to serve in a position of public trust strengthens the foundations of our democratic system and further provides more choices for our voters when they visit the polls this November.

As you are probably aware, the Commonwealth Election Commission serves a vital role as the disinterest guardian of the democratic franchise in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. The Commonwealth Election Commission must ensure a fair, orderly and free election. It must be indifferent to the outcome of this election or any other election.

In keeping our candidates for public office informed on numerous requirements and in particular, the election process, we have prepared this brief pamphlet containing information that we feel may be helpful to you in the coming months. While we tried to cover every aspect possible in preparation for the upcoming General Election, we suggest that you also review Title 1 Division 6 of the Commonwealth Code. If you need further assistance, please do not hesitate to let us know.

As we enter this campaign season, the Commissioners and Staffs of the Commonwealth Election Commission join me in extending our warmest regards to you.

Respectfully,

KAYLA S. IGITOL
Executive Director

Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands COMMONWEALTH ELECTION COMMISSION

Candidate Filing Process

The candidate filing process enables qualified individuals to have their names appear on the General Election ballots. Nominating Petitions forms may be obtained from the Office of the Commonwealth Election Commission on Beach Road, Susupe, Saipan, or from a Commissioner on Tinian or Rota. Nominating Petitions may be circulated by the candidates themselves or by a person chosen by the candidates to circulate the Nominating Petition.

Signatures and Filing Fee Requirements

Before being filed, nominations papers must be signed by a specified number of registered voters who are qualified to vote for the office sought. The candidate is responsible for ensuring that there are sufficient signatures of qualified voters on his/her nominating papers. The number of required signatures and the amount of fee for filing varies according to the office sought. (See table below.)

OFFICE	REQUIRED SIGNATURES	FILING FEE
Senator	5% or 100, whichever is less	$250.00
House of Representative	5% or 50, whichever is less	$100.00
U.S. Delegate	200	$500.00

Candidates are advised to file their nomination papers early and to obtain more signatures than may be required in anticipation of invalid signatures or unqualified voters. Submissions after August 07, 2024, submissions by facsimile transmission and submissions by electronic mail will not be considered nor processed.

All completed nominating petitions must be submitted to the Office of the Commonwealth Election Commission, in Beach Road, Susupe, Saipan, by the close of business (4:30 p.m.), 90 days prior to the election day (8/07/2024). The Commission may refuse to accept for filing any petition that, on its face, fails to comply with the requirements of Title 1 Division 6 of the Commonwealth Code, applicable rules and regulations, promulgated manuals, or established Election Commission policies.

Any recognized political party may nominate candidates by having its chairperson and secretary certify to the Commission the names of the party's candidates by August 07, 2024. This certification must accompany the nominating petitions.

Except for the requirement of recognized political party certification, nonpartisan and independent candidates must submit their petitions in the same manner as those for candidates for recognized political candidates.

All candidates for election office must submit, together with the nomination papers, signed statements attesting that they are qualified to seek and hold elective office and that they have complied with all laws, rules and regulations governing candidacy for election to public office.
